Dear Paola,

ISAF Match Racing Women's World Championship

The Match Racing Committee held extensive discussions regarding the 8 bids (one subsequently withdrawn) that we received to host the 2013 Women's World Match Racing Championship.

We found your bid to be very attractive and we looked at your bid very favourably. However, in the end, the decision of the committee was to select and to recommend to Council that we accept the bid submitted by Busan, Korea.

However, we strongly urge you to bid again for the 2014 Women's World Match Racing Championship. In the next few weeks, we will send you a document that will possibly give you more guidance in the matters that the Match Racing Committee will consider in making their selection for the host MNA/Yacht Club for 2014.

Again, we congratulate you for making such a worthy bid for 2013. It was a very difficult decision on our part. We hope that you will renew your bid for 2014.

With kind regards,

Antonio González de la Madrid
Competitions Manager
